Charles Gonnet Crémant de Savoie Brut, France

100% Jacquère

This little sparkler is basically the French Alps saying, “Hi bestie, want a sip?” It’s crisp, refreshing, and delightfully zippy — think green apple, lemon zest, and a tiny alpine breeze that somehow made its way into your glass. The bubbles are energetic (but not chaotic), the finish is clean, and the whole vibe is mountain-chic without the hiking boots.

Perfect for: porch sipping, brunching, celebrating absolutely nothing, or pretending you’re on a European summer holiday. It’s charming, it’s bright, and it’s ready to make your August sparkle.

Steenberg Brut Sparkling Sauvignon Blanc, South Africa

100% Sauvignon Blanc

If Sauvignon Blanc decided to throw on a sequined jacket and become the life of the party, this would be it. This sparkler is fun, fruity, and fabulously fresh — bursting with passion fruit, guava, pineapple, mango, and all the tropical sass you could possibly fit into a glass.

The bubbles are lively, the palate is zippy, and the whole experience feels like a summer vacation you didn’t have to pack for. Sweet fruit lingers on the finish, making it dangerously easy to keep sipping.

Think of it as your sunshine-in-a-bottle sparkler: playful, refreshing, and absolutely here for a good time.
