POP (Yeah You Know Me)

2022 Argyle Blanc de Blancs, Oregon
100% Chardonnay

She’s blonde, bubbly, and impossible to ignore.

Made from 100% Chardonnay, the Argyle Blanc de Blancs is all bright citrus, crisp apple, and just enough brioche to keep things interesting. Elegant? Absolutely. But there's a playful side here too, with lively bubbles and a finish that keeps flirting long after the first sip.

Think Champagne's cool Oregon cousin: polished, charming, and a little less interested in following the rules. Pairs well with oysters, gossip, and pretending you're only having one glass. 😉🥂

Veuve Ambal Crémant de Bourgogne Rosé, France
Pinot Noir, Gamay, and a touch Chardonnay

Warning: This wine has main character energy. This Crémant de Bourgogne Rosé struts in with juicy strawberry, raspberry, and a flirtatious little hint of rose petals. The bubbles are lively, the finish is crisp, and somehow every sip tastes like saying "just one glass" and fully meaning it... for about five minutes.

Think of her as Champagne's fun cousin from Burgundy: effortlessly charming, dangerously easy to love, and always the reason things get a little more interesting. Pairs beautifully with charcuterie boards, girls' night gossip, and texting "I'm on my way" when you're still choosing your outfit.
