Jeio Rosé Prosecco – Italy

Glera and Pinot Nero

This is the rosé that shows up already knowing it's the cutest thing in the room. Bright, crisp, and just a little bit flirty, Jeio Rosé Prosecco brings strawberry, raspberry, and a whisper of citrus that keeps everything lifted and refreshing. The bubbles are fine and playful — the kind that dance around your glass like they have weekend plans.

It's the perfect summer sipper: light, charming, and dangerously easy to drink. Pair it with sunshine, patios, parade chaos, or literally anything involving friends and fun. Jeio Rosé is here for a good time, not a long time, so pour generously.

2024 Muntanya – Can Sumoi, Spain

50/50 Macabeo and Xar-rello

Muntanya is your wild-child sparkling wine — the one who grew up in the mountains, refuses to be boring, and shows up with stories. Can Sumoi keeps things natural and honest, and this bottle proves it. Expect bright orchard fruit, lemon peel, a little herbal snap, and that clean, mineral edge that makes you feel like you're sipping fresh air.

It's crisp, refreshing, and beautifully textured — the kind of wine that makes you pause mid-sip and go, oh wow, that's good. Muntanya is summer in a glass, but with personality. Pair it with seafood, salads, sunshine, or your favorite gossip.
